

ESSCA (www.essca.fr) School of Management is a 100 year old dynamic international business school located on four campuses: Angers, Paris, Budapest and Shanghai.

ESSCA offers various graduate programmes taught in French and English, an executive MBA and a portfolio of executive education courses. Its state-recognized Master in Management is EPAS accredited by the EFMD. The School is currently in the AACSB accreditation process.

Assistant/Associate Professor in Human Resource Management

The position is opened to candidates that demonstrate a great interest in research and aim at publishing in international journals. Candidates should have 2/3 years of teaching experience and should be able to teach in English.

A Ph.D. is required as well as an innovative, managerially-relevant research agenda.

The appointment will be as of September 2010. The position will be based in Angers, which offers an outstanding quality of life only 90 minutes by TGV from Paris. Housing assistance is provided by ESSCA.

Complete applications - cover letter, curriculum vitae, evidence of research, copies of evaluations of teaching, as well as the names and addresses of three referees - should be sent or e-mailed to:

Dr. Benjamin Morisse, Dean of Faculty
ESSCA Business School
1, rue Lakanal – BP 40349
F-49001 Angers Cedex 01
France

Benjamin.morisse@essca.fr